

Council buildings

Barum House is now closed until further notice.

Updates to this will be made on this site and on our social media channels.

We've been following the advice from Public Health England and taking all the precautionary action necessary to make sure our services and buildings are safeguarded for the public and our staff.

The council has followed the robust infection control processes advised by Public Health England and the NHS.

We've also taken additional steps, including sharing good hygiene information and advice with all staff and providing them with the latest information from the Government.
